

Dear Client:

Enclosed is your tax organizer to use in gathering the information necessary to prepare your 2021 income tax returns.

Organizer

Your income tax returns are prepared from information you furnish to us; therefore, we encourage you to complete the organizer as best you can. We may follow up with you to clarify the information or request additional documentation. We assume the information is accurate and we do not audit or independently verify the data submitted.

The questions in the beginning of the organizer identify any changes in your personal situation and any related tax impact. Select information from your 2020 return is preprinted in the far right column for your reference and comparison purposes only.

Timing

It is very important that we receive your information as early as possible which helps us to serve you in an efficient manner. The filing deadline this year is April 18, 2022. If all the necessary information has not been received by March 16, 2022, a request for an extension of time may be needed to complete your income tax returns. If an extension of time is required, any tax that may be due with the returns must be paid with the extension. Any tax not paid by the original filing deadline is subject to interest and late payment penalties.

Documents

While the current tax law includes a larger standard deduction versus claiming itemized deductions, Wisconsin along with several other states still allow a credit/deduction for certain itemized deductions. For this reason, please provide applicable support for property taxes, mortgage interest, donations and significant medical expenses. The IRS continues to match information returns with amounts reported on tax returns. To ensure accuracy, please include all original tax documents and forms such as W2s, 1099s and closing statements as well as any tax notices received during the year.

Updated Information

In the organizer, be sure to review and update if necessary your contact information in the Attention Requested and Client Information sections as well as update your bank account information listed in the Direct Deposit/Electronic Payment section.

As always, please contact us with any questions completing the organizer or to discuss any other tax or accounting need. We appreciate your continued loyalty and trust. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Porter & Sack, CPAs

Tax Year 2021

Dear Client:

We are pleased to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the tax services we will provide. By sending us the information for the preparation of your tax returns, you and all parties referenced in this letter will agree to the terms of our engagement. The engagement between you and our firm will be governed by the terms of this agreement. Please read this letter carefully and if you have any questions concerning this letter, terms, conditions or limitations, please contact us.

Engagement Objective and Scope

We will prepare your 2021 federal and any required resident state individual income tax return that we prepared last year. You are responsible for informing us if you have a tax filing obligation in another state(s)/locality. If so, please complete the Schedule of Additional Tax Returns below. All returns will be prepared from the information you provide. If based on this information we believe you have a filing obligation in any other state(s)/locality, we will contact you for approval to prepare such tax return(s).

This engagement letter does not cover the preparation of any financial statements, which, if we are to provide, will be covered under a separate engagement letter.

You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless with respect to any and all claims arising from the use of the tax returns for any purpose other than filing with the IRS, state and local tax authorities regardless of the nature of the claim, including the negligence of any party.

We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you provide to us, although we may ask you to clarify certain information. Our engagement does not include any procedures designed to detect errors, fraud, or theft. Therefore, our engagement cannot be relied upon to disclose such matters.

This engagement is limited to the professional services outlined above.

CPA Firm Responsibilities

Unless otherwise noted, we will perform our services in accordance with the Statements on Standards for Tax Services (“SSTSs”) issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“AICPA”) and U.S. Treasury Department Circular 230 (“Circular 230”). It is our duty to perform services with the same standard of care that a reasonable tax return preparer would exercise in this type of engagement. It is your responsibility to safeguard your assets and maintain accurate records pertaining to transactions. We will not hold your property in trust for you, or otherwise accept fiduciary duties in the performance of the engagement.

We will prepare your tax returns based upon your filing status (single, married filing jointly, married filing separately, head of household or qualifying widow with dependent child) as reflected in your income tax returns for last year. If your filing status has changed, you wish to change your filing status, or you have questions about your filing status, please contact us immediately.

Arguable positions

We will use our judgment to resolve questions in your favor where a tax law is unclear, provided that we have a reasonable belief that there is substantial authority for doing so. If there are conflicting interpretations of the law, we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your return. We will follow the position you request, provided it is consistent with our understanding of tax reference materials. Tax reference materials include but are not limited to, the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”), tax regulations, Revenue Rulings, Revenue Procedures, Private Letter Rulings, court cases, and similar state and local guidance. If the IRS, state or local tax authorities later contest the position you select, additional tax, penalties, and interest may be assessed. We assume no liability, and you hereby release us from any liability, including but not limited to, additional tax, penalties, interest, and related professional fees, you may incur.

Confidentiality

If the tax returns prepared in connection with this engagement are filed using the married filing jointly filing status, both spouses are deemed to be clients of the firm under the terms of this Agreement. Both spouses acknowledge that there is no expectation of privacy from the other concerning our services in connection with this Agreement. We are at liberty to share with either of you, without prior consent of the other, documents and other information concerning the preparation of your tax returns.

Bookkeeping assistance

We may deem it necessary to provide you with accounting and bookkeeping assistance solely for the purpose of preparing the tax returns. These services will be performed solely in accordance with the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct and billed in accordance with the fees outlined below.

Tax planning services

Tax planning services are not within the scope of this engagement.

Government inquiries

This engagement does not include responding to inquiries by any governmental agency or tax authority. If your tax return is selected for examination or audit, you may request our assistance in responding to such an inquiry. If you ask us to represent you, and we agree to represent you, we will confirm this engagement in a separate Agreement.

The IRS permits you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return’s due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidence by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check this box.

Third-party requests

We will not respond to any request from banks, mortgage brokers or others for verification of any information reported on these tax returns. We do not communicate with third parties or provide them with copies of tax returns unless you provide authorization.

Tax advice

During the preparation of your tax returns or in response to your request(s), we may provide you with tax advice concerning matters that are not the subject of this engagement letter. This tax advice and communication is beyond the scope of tax return preparation and is not included in the fees for tax return preparation. The fees for this advice will be based on the terms below.

Reliance on others

If you wish to take a tax position based upon the advice of another tax advisor, we must comply with Circular 230, §10.37(b) and AICPA SSTS No. 1 and related Interpretations 1-1 and 1-2, which requires the position to meet the “realistic possibility,” “substantial authority,” or “more likely than not” standard, as applicable. You agree to obtain a written statement from the advisor confirming the standard that should apply so the position may be properly disclosed. If additional research or disclosure is required, you agree to pay for the additional charges necessary to complete the disclosure or research.

Substantial understatement penalties

The IRS and many states impose penalties for substantial understatement of tax. To avoid the substantial understatement penalty, you must have substantial authority to support the tax treatment of the item challenged by the IRS or have an adequate disclosure of the item. To fulfill the adequate disclosure requirement, you may be required to attach to your tax return a completed Form 8275, Disclosure Statement, or Form 8275-R, Regulation Disclosure Statement, which discloses all relevant facts.

You agree to advise us if you wish to disclose a tax treatment on your return. If you request our assistance in identifying or performing further research to ascertain if there is substantial authority for the proposed position to be taken on the tax item(s) in your returns, and we agree to perform the research, then the fees for this will apply as stated below. It is your responsibility to contact us if additional assistance is required.

Client Responsibilities

Attached is an income tax organizer to help you compile and document the information necessary to prepare your income tax returns. You must complete the income tax organizer with accurate and complete information. Income from all sources, including those outside the U.S., is required.

Online access to information

To the extent you provide our firm with access to electronic data via a local or online database from which we will download your information, you agree that the data is accurate as of the date and time you authorize it to be downloaded.

Documentation

You are responsible for maintaining adequate documentation to substantiate the accuracy and completeness of your tax returns. You should retain all documents that provide evidence and support for reported income, credits, deductions, and other information on your returns, as required under applicable tax laws and regulations. You represent that you have such documentation and can produce it, if necessary, to respond to any audit or inquiry by tax authorities. You agree to hold our firm harmless from any liability including but not limited to, additional tax, penalties, interest and professional fees resulting from the disallowance of tax deductions due to inadequate documentation.

Federal tax law requires us to retain copies of tax returns we prepare, and other documents related to our tax services for varying time periods. However, we do not retain your original records so we will return those to you upon the completion of the engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect the records for possible future use. Our current policy (which we may revise at any time and in our sole discretion) is to retain copies of tax returns and certain related workpapers for ten years after the return is filed, subject to casualties beyond our control.

Gift tax returns

The IRS considers a gift to be any transfer to an individual, either directly or indirectly, where full consideration (measured in money or money's worth) is not received in return. Under federal tax law, certain gifts are taxable and subject to an annual gift tax exclusion amount, which for 2020, is $15,000 per taxpayer. You are responsible for informing us if gift tax returns are required to be filed.

State and local filing obligations

On June 21, 2018, the U.S. Supreme Court reversed the long-standing physical presence nexus standard in South Dakota v. Wayfair, Inc. et. al. This decision significantly changes the landscape of sales and use tax compliance, especially for online sellers. If you wish to understand the impact of the decision on your business, please so advise and, if necessary, we will confirm this in a separate Agreement.

U.S. filing obligations related to foreign investments

You are responsible for informing us of all foreign assets owned directly or indirectly, including but not limited to financial accounts with foreign institutions, other foreign non-account investments, and ownership of any foreign entities, regardless of amount. If upon review of the information you have provided to us, including information that comes to our attention, we believe that you may have additional filing obligations, we will notify you.

Based upon the information you provide, we will use this data to inform you of any additional filing requirements, which may include FinCEN Form 114, Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts ("FBAR").

Failure to timely file the required forms may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties. You agree to provide us with complete and accurate information regarding any foreign investments in which you have a direct or indirect interest, or over which you have signature authority, during the above referenced tax year.

The foreign reporting requirements are very complex. We assume no liability for penalties associated with the failure to file or untimely filing of any of these forms.

Foreign filing obligations

You are responsible for complying with the tax filing requirements of any other country. You acknowledge and agree that we have no responsibility to raise these issues with you and that foreign filing obligations are not within the scope of this engagement.

Virtual currency

The IRS considers virtual currency (e.g., Bitcoin) as property for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As such, any transactions in, or transactions that use, virtual currency are subject to the same general tax principles that apply to other property transactions.

If you had virtual currency activity during the tax year, you may be subject to tax consequences associated with such transactions and may have additional reporting obligations. You agree to provide us with complete and accurate information regarding any transactions in, or transactions that have used, virtual currency during the applicable tax year.

Ultimate responsibility

You have final responsibility for the accuracy of your tax returns. We will provide you with a copy of your tax returns and accompanying schedules and statements for review prior to filing with the IRS, state and local tax authorities, as applicable. You agree to review and examine them carefully for accuracy and completeness.

You will be required to verify and sign a completed Form 8879, IRS e-file Signature Authorization, and any similar state and local equivalent authorization form before your returns can be filed electronically. In the event that you do not wish to have your tax returns filed electronically, please contact our firm. Additional procedures will apply. You will be responsible for reviewing the paper returns for accuracy, signing them, and filing them timely with the tax authorities.

Timing of the Engagement and Extensions of Time to File Tax Returns

We expect to begin our services upon receipt of the completed tax organizer and all relevant documents. We need adequate time to perform these procedures; therefore, we request receipt of your information at least 30 days prior to the due date. If you are unable to provide us with this information at least 30 days prior to the due date, it may be necessary to request an extension of time to file. We do not file extensions automatically. If you want us to request an extension, you must notify us in writing no later than 10 days prior to the return's due date. It may become necessary to apply for an extension of the filing deadline if there are unresolved issues or delays in processing, or if we do not receive all of the necessary information from you on a timely basis. Applying for an extension of time to file may extend the time available for a government agency to undertake an audit of your return or may extend the statute of limitations to file a legal action. All taxes owed are due by the original filing due date. Additionally, extensions may affect your liability for penalties and interest or compliance with governmental or other deadlines.

Penalties and Interest Charges

Federal, state, and local tax authorities impose various penalties and interest charges for non-compliance with tax laws and regulations, including failure to file or late filing of returns, and underpayment of taxes. You, as the taxpayer, remain responsible for the payment of all tax, penalties, and interest charges imposed by tax authorities.

Professional Fees

Our fees for this tax services engagement will be based in part upon the amount of time required at our standard billing rates for the personnel working on the engagement involved, degree of responsibility assumed and skills required, plus expenses, including internal and administrative charges. Such charges will be based upon several factors including the complexity of the work performed, the nature of services to be provided, the work product to be completed and the experience level of the individuals that will be assigned to the engagement as well as the timely delivery, availability, quality and completeness of your records. All invoices are due and payable upon receipt.

If the above terms and conditions are in accordance with your understanding and are acceptable to you, our preparation of your individual tax returns will constitute your acceptance of the terms and conditions outlined above whether or not you file the returns we prepare and deliver to you. We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.
